Survey Reveals Dixie Is Political Jigsaw Puzzle

By RELMAN MORIN
ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — The South is a political jigsaw puzzle at this stage of the presidential campaign, a fascinating tangle of party-bolting, personalities, and hotly colored opinions about issues.

And one fact is crystal clear — many Southerners are less than lukewarm about both President Johnson and Sen. Barry Goldwater.

"Poor choice," "Lesser of two evils," "Don't feel like voting for either one," "Going fishing Election Day."

On a recent tour of the South, this correspondent heard these sentiments expressed more frequently than any other single view of the campaign.

Opinion-samplings by Associated Press bureaus in all the Southern states likewise reported a lack of enthusiasm for the two major party candidates.

"I'm going to vote for Johnson but I wouldn't if there were anyone besides Goldwater on the Republican ticket," said Julie Anne Waxman, Augusta, Ga., a student nurse.

Jackie Carter, Hutchins, Tex., used a bowling term to express his attitude. "It looks like a 7-10 (a difficult position) any way you go. I slightly prefer Goldwater."

An airport bus driver in Amarillo, Tex., said he has heard of a sticker saying "Vote 'no' for president." He said, "That's for me." A Chattanooga housewife, whose husband's car bears a Goldwater sticker, said, "I don't want a sticker that says 'I'm for Johnson,' if I could just get one that says, 'I'm not for Goldwater.'"

Not every Southerner, to be sure, is preparing to cast an "against" vote. Many said the issues as well as the two men have attracted them to the banner of Johnson or Goldwater.

E. G. (Dan) Boone, a Florida lawyer—and a Democrat—said, "People in Florida believe that if Goldwater gets in, the first time Castro gets out of line, there won't be any of this wishy-washy stuff from the State Department. Goldwater will say, 'Buddy, you've had it.'"

A Griffin, Ga., service station operator said he is for Goldwater "because of this 'nigger' business." Numerous Southerners said a vote for the GOP candidate "is the only way I have to protest against the government ramming civil rights down my throat."

Vice versa, the Rev. Cuthbert Allen, a Dominican priest who is acting president of Belmont Abbey College, Belmont, N.C., said, "I am a Johnson man because I think the present administration is on the right track on all the issues."

In Bridge City, La., Mrs. M. Bourgeois said she "looked with dislance" on Johnson when he first took office. But after the attack on U.S. warships in the Gulf of Tonkin, she said, "I like him."

Man, 3 Sons Lost in Lake

Warning of Rough Seas Is Ignored

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP)—A father of nine, ignoring warnings of rough seas, went with his three young sons and two friends to try out a secondhand rowboat on choppy Lake Erie. None of them returned and searchers found the rowboat partly filled with water and a light motorboat overturned less than a mile off shore.

Coastguardmen found the bodies of 42-year-old Clarence (Pete) Pratt, who liked to do things with his flock of kids, and his 16-year-old son Clarence Jr., late Monday following a long search. The others, missing and feared drowned, were the object of a Coast Guard hunt.

The Coast Guard said the 16-foot inboard motorboat was towing the newly purchased flat-bottomed rowboat belonging to Clarence Pratt Jr. when it apparently capsized in high waves off Little Cedar Point eight miles northeast of Toledo. Searchers found the smaller boat still afloat. Three or four life preservers were floating in a half foot of water that had splashed in.

The boaters left a public marina in Toledo at 3 p.m. Sunday after the Coast Guard had posted small craft warnings. Winds were clocked at 20 to 25 miles an hour then and waves were four to five feet high.

Others in the party were identified as James Tucker, 35, owner of the inboard; Roe Riegle, 17, and Ricky Pratt, 14, and his brother, Larry, 12. The oldest Pratt boy bought the rowboat a few weeks ago and had asked his father if he would help him try it out.

"I tried to talk Pete out of going because the weather was so bad but he wouldn't listen," said Mrs. Edna Davis, a neighbor of the Pratts.

"Clarence wants to try out this boat and we'll be careful," Pratt, a spray painter at a jeep plant, told her before leaving.

Upon learning of the tragedy, Mrs. Marion Pratt, 35-year-old mother left with six children ranging in age from two to 10, sobbed.

"Why did they go? Why did they go? Oh No! Not four of them."

PTA Studies Curfew on Drive-Ins

CLEVELAND (AP)—Resolutions to be considered by delegates at the Ohio Congress of Parents and Teachers, Inc., convention here included one call on the Ohio Legislature to establish reasonable closing hours for drive-in movie theaters.

The resolution put before the delegates Monday is based on the operation of drive-in theaters into the early morning hours and the effect on the health, welfare and well-being of young people attending the theaters.

Other proposed resolutions would:

—Raise the age limit for probationary driver's licenses to 18 years except for those having satisfactorily passed approved driver-education courses.

—Change to automatic operation school bus flashers with brakes for more protection for children as opposed to manually operated flashers.

—Eliminate the necessity of repayment of the Ohio congress memorial scholarship grant in that it would be adequate for the recipient to be enrolled in a satisfactory college majoring in education and have the intent to teach.

—Encourage school administrations to bring information to students regarding the harmful effects of smoking through strengthening the programs of specified education in classes such as health and science.

RFK's Population Explosion Is Eyed

NEW YORK (AP) — A student at Columbia University asked Robert F. Kennedy Monday night what he plans to do about the population explosion if he is elected to the U.S. Senate.

Kennedy replied that he did not know if he was the right person to answer the question.

His wife, expecting their ninth child, joined the laughter.

Kennedy, Democratic candidate for the Senate then answered the question seriously. He said it's a personal matter in the United States, but critical and demanding of a solution in certain other countries.

Soviet Accuses U.S. Aides Of Espionage in Siberia

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet Union today accused three U.S. military attaches and a British attaché of espionage in Siberia but the American Embassy said the American Embassy rejected the charge.

The Soviet accusation "was not responsive to our serious protests against the violations of diplomatic immunity" of the attaches, the U.S. Embassy said, referring to an earlier protest that property of the attaches was seized.

The Foreign Ministry said it rejected the American and British protests.

The Soviet protest was made public a day after Washington and London announced protests against what they called "flagrant violation" of the attaches' diplomatic immunity.

In the Soviet far eastern city of Khabarovsk Sept. 8-29 Soviet government officials "forcibly entered" the attaches' rooms and seized some of their property, the Western statements said.

The Soviet protest said more than 900 pictures, material in 26 notebooks and other materials showed that the attaches were "grossly violating the universally accepted standards of conduct of foreign diplomats."

The four are Lt. Cmdr. Nigel N. Laville, assistant British naval attaché in Moscow; Lt. Col. Karl R. Liewer, assistant American military attaché; Col. George A. Aubrey, the American military attaché; and Maj. James F. Smith, an assistant American air attaché.

According to the U.S. State Department report, the men, on a train trip through Siberia, had taken two hotel rooms in Khabarovsk.

A group of 15 Soviet officials "forcibly entered" and "forcibly searched" the two rooms. The Russians took away some of their belongings, including a wristwatch. The incident lasted approximately four hours.

The Soviet note said it was established that the attaches were violating Soviet rules for foreign missions.

The attaches went by train from Moscow to the Pacific coast of the Soviet Union, then went by ship to Tokyo, and flew today to Hong Kong. They were scheduled to return to Moscow via New Delhi, India, within the next few days.

The Soviet note said the Foreign Ministry "reserves the right to return to the question of the possibility of the further stay in the Soviet Union" of the four.

In past cases of Soviet accusations that Western military attaches have engaged in espionage, the men have been declared persona non grata and forced to leave the Soviet Union.

Danger Seen In Johnson's 'Vast Lead'

NEW YORK (AP) — The New York Times said today that exactly four weeks before Election Day Nov. 3, President Johnson is the most overwhelming choice to win the presidency since Thomas E. Dewey at the same stage of the 1948 campaign.

"Therein may lie a warning to the Democrats," the story said, adding:

"Yet, even Mr. Dewey never enjoyed the kind of lead that every reliable indicator now gives Mr. Johnson — and Mr. Dewey's upset by Harry S. Truman was a tame event compared with the shock that would hit political analysts, poll-takers and party officials if Sen. Barry Goldwater were to manage a victory this year."

The Times said: "Even the established gambling odds support the conclusions of the study. The latest established national betting line is 7 to 1 on Mr. Johnson."

The Times said that many analysts, despite the polls and the atmosphere of Democratic victory, are reluctant to predict flatly a landslide for Johnson; many believe that in the remaining weeks of the campaign Goldwater may gain ground.

Marines Say Navy Gunfire Is Deficient

WASHINGTON (AP) — The nation's top Marine said today there is "a deficiency" of naval gunfire to support over-the-beach landings and "remedial action is essential."

Gen. Wallace M. Greene Jr., Marine Corps commandant, discussed what he called a "gun gap" with The Associated Press following indications that the Navy is studying how to beef up its shore bombardment capability.

Not much has been said publicly, but both the Marines and the Navy amphibious forces have been concerned for some time that that capability has been reduced by the switch from conventional guns to missiles in the armaments of many warships since World War II and Korea.

In a little-noticed passage of a recent speech, Greene said "the days of the 16-inch guns of the battleships are gone."

"Missiles have largely replaced the guns of the cruisers and destroyers," he said.

Greene said there is no doubt "that a further reduction in available naval gunfire support will increase the 'gun gap' and reduce our shore bombardment capability."

The Navy and the Marine Corps, he said, are working jointly to reduce the gap.

There are indications that the Navy is considering an entirely new kind of gunfire support ship to provide a bombardment cover for any Marine or Army troops called upon to storm enemy beaches in the future.

One Day a Week On Job Is Asked

GOLDFIELD, Nev. (AP) — Esmeralda County Commissioners are looking for a new district attorney who won't object to spending one day a week on the job.

Attorney Keith Hayes who has his office in Las Vegas, 187 miles away, quit Monday after commissioners contended he wasn't spending enough time on the job. Hayes said it was ridiculous to spend all that time here; there just wasn't enough business.

Commission chairman M.L. Shank said the county would like to see a retired attorney willing to settle down in Goldfield to take the $400 a month job. The county has 500 residents.

Lady Bird Off On Campaign In Deep South

Virginians Urged To Heed Advice of Confederate Hero

ABOARD LADYBIRD SPECIAL (AP) — Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson launched a Southern whistlestop tour today with a quotation from Robert E. Lee and urged Virginians to forget differences over civil rights and seek a unified nation.

With President Johnson at her side, the First Lady recalled to a crowd at her first stop in Alexandria, Va. — not far from Lee's Arlington home — the advice of the Confederate general to Southerners after the Civil War to "abandon all these local animosities and make your sons Americans."

To this, Mrs. Johnson added her own advice, urging fellow Southerners to seek "the ties that bind us together, not settle for the tensions that tend to divide us."

The President climbed aboard the Ladybird Special for the start of his wife's 1,682-mile foray into the South and rode with her to the first stop just across the Potomac River.

Later in the day Johnson flies to Raleigh, N.C., to meet a speechmaking date of his own and join his wife on the first overnight stop of her tour. He will campaign Wednesday in Iowa and Illinois.

"I want to tell you from Alexandria to New Orleans that to this President and his wife the South is a respected and valued and beloved part of this country," Mrs. Johnson said in her prepared speech.

The First Lady pointed out that "the hard duty of assuring equal and constitutional rights to all Americans falls, not only on the President of the United States but upon all who love this land."

Mrs. Johnson, born in Karnack, Tex., declared her own deep pride and love of the South. She talked of old customs, a special brand of gentility and courtesy, new economic growth, and a long line of famous statesmen, including 12 presidents and 15 secretaries of state from Thomas Jefferson to Dean Rusk.

She said she has always believed there is "more love than hate" in the South and was convinced of it by the way the passage of the equal rights law was received.

For the most part, she said, it was "in a way that was a great credit to local leadership," to mayors and ministers, white merchants, Negro leaders and to average citizens.

Mrs. Johnson has scheduled her 19-car train to travel through 180 communities in eight Southern states in four days.

Once Around Roundtown

JACK FROST paid his first visit of the season to the Pickaway County area early today.

A heavy frost was reported in several outlying areas as temperatures dropped to an official low of 33 degrees. Another frost is expected tonight with temperatures falling to a low of 30-34.

Louisiana Digging Out

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP) — Louisiana, hit by its worst hurricane in seven years, stepped up efforts to return to normal today even while flood threats mounted.

Gov. John McKeithen flew on an inspection tour of several devastated areas Monday and described what he saw as "a terrible disaster."

Hurricane Hilda moved up through the Gulf of Mexico and struck Louisiana's coast Saturday. Hilda and the vicious tornadoes she set off killed 36 persons.

Damages may run to $100 million.

Hilda's might wore out over Louisiana. After colliding with a cold front over Georgia and the Carolinas, it pushed out into the Atlantic Ocean.

Ike In Middle Of Nuclear Fuss

Barry To Send Ike to Viet Nam

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Barry Goldwater steers his campaign for the White House into Pennsylvania today, having declared that if he wins he will ask former President Dwight D. Eisenhower to undertake a study mission to South Viet Nam.

The other men mentioned for the task are former Minnesota Rep. Walter H. Judd, once a leading Republican voice in Congress on foreign affairs; retired Adm. Arleigh Burke, former chief of naval operations; and retired Gen. Mark Clark, a top U.S. commander during World War II and the Korean War.

Goldwater already has named Judd to head a six-man task force charting a Republican course on South Viet Nam and Southeast Asia.

"As this country's foremost military man and foremost statesman, Gen. Eisenhower is the man best qualified to fulfill this critical mission," Goldwater said in outlining his study plan.

Bike Traffic Law Aired

The licensing and inspection of bicycles was discussed last night at the second meeting of the Bicycle Safety Committee.

Chief of Police Robert Temple said an ordinance will be prepared for consideration of City Council tonight.

Present plans call for a bike to be registered once. A license tag will be issued.

Thereafter, police will supervise yearly safety inspections.

JUDGE Guy Cline of the Pickaway County Juvenile Court and area law officers have discussed the enforcement of traffic laws as pertaining to bike riders and bicycle safety.

Chief Temple said each youthful violator will be given a citation. When two citations have been issued to the offender, he and his parents will be cited to appear in juvenile court.

Although the licensing program will not affect county youngsters, Sheriff Walton Spangler said other aspects of the safety program and law enforcement will apply.

George McDowell, Pickaway County Superintendent of schools, said today the county school system will cooperate 100 per cent with the safety program.

The safety literature will be distributed to the schools and members of the sheriff's department will discuss laws.

The next session of the bike safety group will be 8 p. m. Oct. 19 in the basement of the City Building.

PRESENT last night were 14 representatives of the various civic and youth organizations in the County.

The meeting was chairmaned by Bob Hendricks.

Nonaligned Nations Shun Congo Chief

CAIRO (AP) — Leaders of the nonaligned nations meeting in Cairo decided unanimously today to exclude Premier Moise Tshombe of the Congo, who was under virtual house arrest in a suburban palace.

They declared it would be inappropriate for the controversial Congolese leader to take part in their conference, though they would welcome his chief, President Joseph Kasavubu.

A delegation carried the statement to the walled Aruba Palace in Heliopolis, to which Tshombe was escorted when he flew in from Athens, Greece, before dawn as an unwanted guest.

Tshombe was visited this morning by Mohamed Faik, director of African affairs in President Gamal Abdel Nasser's office. Faik told Tshombe he would not be permitted to leave the palace, except to leave the country, before the conference reached a decision.

Many African leaders distrust him as a creature of white imperialists and accuse him of the murder of the Congo's first premier, leftist Patrice Lumumba.

Ohio Aid for Aged To Be Increased

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Monthly allowances will be increased this month for about half of Ohio's 80,000 aid for the aged recipients, the state Welfare Department said today.

Special allowances for health and life insurance have been eliminated in line with recommendations of the "Little Hoover" state government economy-efficiency study, assistant welfare director Robert B. Canary said. More money is provided for the basic allowance as a result.

As an example, Canary said an individual recipient living alone will get $2.50 more per month.

Radar Topography Study Is Ordered

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — A $71,670 study contract has been awarded North American Aviation Co., Downey, Calif., to determine if radar can relay information about topography to a computer, which in turn would tell an astronaut what lay ahead on the moon.

The computer study is being run by Dr. Jack Green of North American on an area of extremely rough lava in Pisgah crater near Barstow, Calif., a Manned Spacecraft Center spokesman said today.

Javits Remains Uncertain of Vote

SYRACUSE, N.Y. (AP) — Sen. Jacob K. Javits, R-N.Y., says he has not decided how he will cast his ballot in the presidential election but "I am not going to leave it blank."

"I cannot and do not support the Goldwater ticket for election," Javits told Syracuse University students Monday night. He added: "I am not prepared to support President Johnson."

He said that, if election results do not show a "great rank-and-file support" of Sen. Barry Goldwater's position, "there will be a great effort by the moderates to win back the (Republican) party and I will be part of that effort."

Dems, GOP Both Elated

Republican Report Causes Ruckus

WASHINGTON (AP) — Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower was in the middle today — between Democrats and Republicans, each claiming he was on their side in a dispute over nuclear-weapons control.

It began Monday when the GOP unveiled a task-force report claiming President Johnson had overextended his control of field-type nuclear weapons. This, the GOP group contended, has damaged U.S. security.

Eisenhower appeared at a New York news conference, but wouldn't endorse or reject the report.

He deplored the injection of the nuclear-weapons issue into the presidential campaign and added: "I don't think these are things that ought to be talked out in detail... I don't think we should reach conclusions telling the President what he should do or what he should say."

The White House promptly released a statement declaring that President Johnson agreed with Eisenhower that "it is not in the best interest of the country to take our defense plans and make them public."

Dean Burch, Republican national chairman, said Johnson's comment was "a patent attempt to get off the hook of an issue which is embarrassing him and his administration because the American people realize the Democrats have used the question."

Mental Health Group Meets In Chillicothe

A meeting of the multi county planning committee for the establishment of a community guidance center was held last night in Chillicothe.

Attending from Pickaway County were Wayne Hines, county commissioner, and Richard Fisher, Chillicothe High School guidance counselor.

The center, now in the planning stage, will be located in Chillicothe for improvement of the mental health in surrounding counties. Presently Ross, Fayette, Pike and Pickaway Counties are planning to participate.

Highland County is a possible fifth member of the committee.

Funds for the operation of the center are obtained from the state of Ohio and participating counties on a 2 for 1 matching basis.

To be named in the near future are three trustees from each participating county responsible for the operation of the center.

It is hoped the organization can proceed rapidly with actual operation of the center on a full time basis beginning June 1, 1965.

Additional information concerning the guidance center will be available at the next meeting of the Pickaway County Mental Health Assn. to be held 8 p. m. Oct. 12 in the Pickaway County Court House. The meeting is open to the public.

Oesterle Gets Post at WCH

Robert E. Oesterle of the Williamsport community has been named manager of Eshelman Feed, Inc., in Washington C.H.

Oesterle, former manager of the Scioto Grain & Feed Supply Co. in Ashville, assumed his new post Monday. A native of Pike County, he was assistant manager of the Pickaway Grain Co. in Circleville before going to Ashville.

Mr. and Mrs. Oesterle, both graduates of Kingston High School, live on a farm on Route 22 west of Williamsport. One son, William, is a senior at Westfall High School and plays tackle on the football team. Bobby is in the 8th grade at Jackson Junior High School.

Oesterle succeeds Parker Hitzfield who resigned the Washington C. H. job to accept a position as an industrial arts teacher at Miami Trace High School.

tion of nuclear weapons to strike fear and horror into their hearts."

Burch has complained in the past about Democratic campaign material he charged was designed to frighten people into believing Arizona Sen. Barry Goldwater, the GOP presidential nominee, was trigger-happy and might bring on a nuclear war.

Although he hasn't mentioned it since he began formal campaigning for the White House, Goldwater proposed last Oct. 24 in Hartford, Conn., that the NATO commander be given more authority over the use of tactical nuclear weapons.

He repeated the proposal in a campaign position paper during his primary race for the nomination and in speeches June 30 and Aug. 24.

Johnson has contended that only the president should have the final say on use of any nuclear weapon.

The task force report was read in Eisenhower's presence. It called on Johnson to assure the United States' NATO allies that the American NATO commander could use tactical nuclear weapons in an extreme emergency, and to assure Americans that the controls wouldn't impair U.S. ability to respond to a nuclear attack.

Other than reading a brief statement saying that Johnson agreed with Eisenhower and describing the former president's stand as "right and patriotic," White House press secretary George Reedy referred reporters to Johnson's speech Sept. 16 in Seattle on nuclear control.

The task force said the Democrats had installed a "permissive action link" — an electro-mechanical lock — on nuclear weapons and NATO Allies were concerned because only the president had the key.

Johnson discussed the electro-mechanical locks as one of the safeguards against indiscriminate use of nuclear weapons in his Seattle speech and said only the president should have the key to permit use of nuclear weapons.

Stock Mart Nudges Up

NEW YORK (AP) — Selected issues were prominent as the stock market nudged ahead in regularly early this afternoon in fairly active trading.

Speculative attention was drawn to a scattering of stocks while profits were taken on a number of recent gainers.

General Motors advanced a point even though Wall Street seemed to have exhausted most of its bullishness of Monday based on the tentative agreement between GM and the United Auto Workers Union. The question remained how long the GM strike would last in view of the many local issues still to be decided.

Chrysler, down well over a point, was one of the outstanding casualties. Ford and American Motors each gained small fractions while Studebaker was unchanged.

A slightly higher edge prevailed among steels, airlines, farm implements and tobaccos. Building materials, rubbers and nonferrous metals were mostly lower. Rails continued to advance. Oils were generally unchanged, with Jersey Standard off a bit.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was up .2 at 327.8 with industrials unchanged, rails up .6 and utilities unchanged.

The Dow Jones industrial average at noon was off 1.03 at 876.12.

Vatican City Starts Issuing Park Tickets

VATICAN CITY (AP) — The 108-acre Vatican City is starting to issue tickets for overtime parking but the ticketing is not likely to improve matters.

The papal state's traffic tickets have been so rare that souvenir hunters collect them off most windshield before motorists find them.

The fine will be 40 cents for parking more than one hour or for parking in a no parking zone. Just across the line in Rome it is $1.60.

All members, parents and interested persons are invited to Thursday's meeting.

Two Local Men Plead Innocent To Fraud Charge

Two Circleville men, charged with obtaining money by fraud from an elderly Ross County couple, yesterday entered pleas of innocent in Chillicothe Municipal Court.

Each was held under $1,000 bond pending preliminary hearings scheduled Oct. 12. Charged are Benjamin Schwalbaugh, 20, and Ronnie Keaton, 22.

Schwalbaugh was arrested by Greenfield Police Thursday as he attempted to cash a $511.25 check obtained from Mr. and Mrs. Ray Moorehead.

A third person is being sought by Ross County authorities in connection with the incident.

Mr. and Mrs. Moorehead said they paid the money for three hours repair work.

John Wayne's Son, Pat, Heads into Acting Career

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — With some sons and daughters of famous stars, an acting career is a foregone conclusion. It wasn't that way with Pat Wayne.

Pat, 25, is the son of John Wayne, still reigning as one of the last originals of a great movie era. Pat has his father's broad shoulders and square jaw, but the eyes seem Latin like his mother's. She was the first Mrs. Wayne, Josephine Saenz.

The boy has been acting since he was 11, his first role was in "Rio Grande" with his father. He has done a dozen films since vacation; his pa would book no interference with Pat's studies. During his teen years Pat was taken up as a cause by the clamorous younger set, and he could evoke sighs and screams the same as Elvis Presley. The experience neither turned Pat's head nor convinced him that he and acting were meant for each other.

Phone Fraud Jail Term Is Suspended

EAST LIVERPOOL, Ohio (AP)—Mrs. Valerie A. Varavette, 25, of East Liverpool pleaded no contest in Municipal Court Monday to a charge of fraudulently obtaining telephone service by making long distance calls and charging them to the numbers of other subscribers.

Judge Samuel N. Chertoff sentenced her to four months in jail, but suspended the sentence on the condition that she straighten out her marital difficulties as soon as possible.

Mrs. Varavette's court-appointed attorney, Delmar T. O'Hara, is asking for suspension of the sentence, told the court that she is six months pregnant and in the process of divorcing her husband, a soldier stationed in the Panama Canal zone, so she can marry another service man stationed in Germany.

The charge against Mrs. Varavette was filed by Ralph T. Denholm of the Cleveland office of the Ohio Bell Telephone Co. He said she made a total of 292 long distance calls at a cost of $1,094.28 between last May 11 and Sept. 4 and charged them to the numbers of two other Ohio Bell subscribers, who were not identified.

Farm Bureau Plan Opposed by NFO

NEWARK, Ohio (AP) — The Licking County chapter of the National Farmers Organization has adopted a resolution opposing plans by the Ohio Farm Bureau Federation to purchase a major national food chain.

In the resolution, the NFO identified the chain as the A&P food stores.

The Board of Trustees of the Ohio Farm Bureau recently approved plans to purchase, in cooperation with the American Farm Bureau Federation, a major chain.

In the resolution, the NFO chapter charged that the Ohio Farm Bureau has entered into other business deals without permission of farmers who have invested in the federation.

Leading Candidates Are Chided For 'Undistinguished' Speeches

NEW YORK (AP) — Both President Lyndon Johnson and Sen. Barry Goldwater have been chided for their "undistinguished" campaign speeches. James Reston, long-time Washington correspondent for the New York Times and winner of two Pulitzer Prizes, says the two leading candidates "have told us what a terrible world this would be if the other fellow was elected; it would be helpful if they would define what they would do if they won."

Reston continues: "Nineteen sixty-five is not likely to be a period of dramatic new initiatives in world politics. Some influential men here even go so far as to say that the United States should concentrate on its serious educational, agricultural and racial problems at home and worry less about foreign affairs."

There are, however, several serious problems overseas, including the possibility of a wider and more serious war in Viet Nam, which may even overwhelm our domestic concerns if they are allowed to drift as they have been drifting during the campaign.

How do Johnson and Goldwater propose to achieve the Allied unity they both want? The Western alliance is being steadily weakened by a kind of nationalistic counter-revolution. For a time, the free nations were making progress toward common or at least cooperative policies in the fields of defense, finance, trade and agriculture.

This movement toward interdependence, toward common discussion of common problems seeking common policies, was broken by many things, including DeGaulle's political and defense policies, and the other Allies, preoccupied with domestic politics, have never regained it. The Allies, accordingly, are drifting away from common action to separate national action. They are working at cross purposes in Viet Nam. Their efforts to deal separately with their national agricultural problem even worse. The need for more cooperation in the fields of trade and finance is never greater than now, but the progress in these fields is not keeping pace with the problems.

All this is not only fragmenting the alliance, but hampering the development of the new nations, and the judgment of objective men here is that this drift toward "separateness," if continued for many months, will lead inevitably toward a kind of isolation and also toward weakness in dealing with the Communist worlds.

It is in this larger sense of the whole alliance that the problem of Viet Nam is so important. How do the candidates propose to avoid a major war in Southeast Asia? Both of them have touched this increasingly ominous question but neither of them has really tackled it. The record on both sides is full of dangerous ambiguities.

The present policy justifies little hope of succeeding there. Goldwater is right about that. But it is really true that the situation would be made better by putting American forces into the battle and expanding the war to North Viet Nam? Johnson and Goldwater are now following the domino theory about Viet Nam—if it falls all Southeast Asia will go to the Communists. A free and peaceful Viet Nam, we are told, is "vital" to the security of the U.S. If this true, then obviously the risks of escalation will have to be faced.

But is this true? And if it is, can raising the stakes in the war be "controlled," as the Pentagon is so fond of saying? It would also be interesting to know whether Johnson and Goldwater propose to go to getting the United States involved in every tribal conflict in Africa and Asia. Part of our difficulty now in Viet Nam is that we increased our commitments there without agreeing within the government about our objectives in that conflict. Yet we may be on the point of making the same imprecise mistake in the Congo.

All the indications now are that the new nations of Africa are going to be more unstable internally and more quarrelsome with their neighbors in the next four years than they have

Coast Guard Reports on Fatal Mishap

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Coast Guard said here that the tugboat-bridge-bus accident on Lake Pontchartrain last June which resulted in six deaths was caused by the tugboat helmsman's fainting or falling asleep. The helmsman was Clifford Miley, mate on the tugboat Rebel Jr.

Although the Coast Guard officer who conducted the investigation said no federal laws had been violated, the Coast Guard commandant, Adm. E. J. Roland, said the manning of the tugboat was inadequate and the working hours of the crew unreasonable.

The Rebel Jr. was pushing two steel barges early on the morning of June 16 when it collided with the 24-mile-long structure which spans the lake. It swept away a small section of the bridge and within seconds a bus carrying eight persons plunged from the bridge into the lake. Two survived.

The Coast Guard said Miley, and the tugboat master, Ned Palmer, had been aboard the vessel almost continuously for 16 days with one or the other at the helm at all times.

Miley slept on June 15 but was awakened late in the afternoon and worked with Palmer and a deck hand until after midnight. The others were asleep, with Miley at the helm, when the collision occurred about 1:20 a.m. in the last year. Yet the campaign is casting very little light on how the two candidates propose to approach these problems, or even what they are going to do about the unequal load now being carried by the United States on behalf of the Western alliance in the underdeveloped world.

It is startling to compare the quality of the speeches delivered in this campaign even with the speeches of the Kennedy-

Nixon campaign. And when they are compared with the Stevenson speeches of 1952 the contrast is almost ludicrous.

One by one, the major economic, political, foreign policy and even philosophic questions before the nation were discussed by Stevenson in that campaign 12 years ago, but it is difficult to point to a single distinguished speech by either Johnson or Goldwater since the battle started over a month ago.

U.S. Protests Soviet Raids

WASHINGTON (AP) — A group of 15 Soviet government officials "forcibly entered" two hotel rooms occupied by U.S. military attaches in the city of Khabarovsk a week ago, the State Department disclosed Monday. The Russians reportedly seized photographic equipment and other personal property.

The United States has protested the "flagrant violation" of the diplomatic immunity of the men who were traveling with a British colleague on a trip to Tokyo and Hong Kong. The Americans are due back in Moscow in a few days. A State Department spokesman said that details of exactly what happened are lacking but that he had no evidence that any of the four Westerners was injured.

Goldwater Is Due Back In Ohio on Oct. 17

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Barry Goldwater will return to Ohio for another campaign swing on Oct. 17, Republican national chairman Dean Burch has announced.

The GOP presidential nominee's schedule for the next two weeks, released Sunday, showed Goldwater will stop Oct. 17 in Mansfield, Akron-Canton, and Youngstown. Goldwater's running mate, Rep. William E. Miller of New York, will visit Cleveland and Cincinnati Oct. 21, Burch said.

Poppy Enters Word War

The white opium poppy has come nodding its way into the propaganda war being waged between the Soviet Union and Communist China. The Red Chinese, according to Pravda — which may be telling the truth this once — are making $500 million a year out of narcotics smuggling to Southeast Asia and the United States.

Huge profits derived from this trade are being used, according to the paper, for anti-Soviet propaganda and to subsidize "the puppets of the Peking splitters." Communist China's tremendous stake in this infamous trade is well known. It is a major source of the regime's foreign currency, enabling it to pay for much of what it buys in the West.

According to Pravada, production increased from 2,000 tons annually in 1952 to 8,000 tons in 1958. Figures for more recent years are not available, but are almost certainly higher. The Soviet Union attacks the Red Chinese for adopting the methods of the imperialists' and collaborating with the owners of opium dens.

"Imperialists" are forever bogeymen of communist propaganda machines, but even so, the reference is obscure. If the reference is to history, then it can have little meaning in a modern context. Governments have long ceased to allow free trade in narcotics. Western nations sped millions through law enforcement agencies trying to stamp out the illicit narcotics trade.

The Soviet Union long ago knew all about this infamous trade carried on by the Communist Chinese. Why did Moscow not speak out against it long ago?

Jumping to Some Conclusions

The Business World

NEW YORK (AP)—Industry is calling upon educational institutions to help train workers to handle new and highly complicated machines. Many companies also are sending supervisors back to classes to bring them up to date so they can teach recruits to become semi-skilled or even highly skilled workers.

This tackles two problems at once: lack of job opportunities for the untrained that has kept unemployment high; and deficits of skilled workers that have curbed output in many new industrial fields.

Professional men also are being linked by closed-circuit television to get the latest word in their specialties, whether it be medicine, surgery, law, or insurance. And at the managerial level, many companies are linking their salesmen across the land to centrally conducted educational courses, using both television and the nation's telephone circuits.

Foremen of Jones & Laughlin Steel attended an in-plant seminar to learn both how to operate a new mill and how to teach subordinates. Now they are instructing nearly 200 employees who will work at the new $80-million electronic rolling mill in the company's Cleveland plant.

Eastern Stainless Steel's Baltimore plant gave 100 supervisors a course in handling employees as well as equipment. Now they are training workers to be more efficient—and morale is reported higher because of the psychological pointers the supervisors picked up.

Educational institutions are joining in the move on an increasing scale.

R. Lynn Kalmbach, general manager of the South Carolina Television Center, Columbia, S. C., sees courses designed to increase industrial potential as "far more exciting than the use of educational TV in formal education."

"A nation moving so rapidly its citizens must be retained two three times in a lifetime must develop the tools with which to do it," he adds.

Patrick R. Fischetti, director of Employees Development Services—EDS—Scranton, Pa., says, "Firms can't afford to wait until after the installation of costly, highly automated equipment to start training operators and maintenance personnel."

EDS, a division of the International Correspondence Schools, has trained supervisors for Anacosta Copper, technical personnel at a Western Electric plant, and 20 men to become aides to engineers at an Ohio metal fabricating plant, so the engineers themselves would have more time for other than detail work.

A FOREST RANGER, patrolling a vacation area in Wisconsin, was impressed recently by the absence of tin cans and empty beer bottles in a stream traversing the region. He was more impressed when he found two neat piles of debris near the shore, indicating that somebody had had sufficient pride to police the area thoroughly. Then came disillusionment. The work, it transpired, had not been done by thoughtful campers, but by a pair of beavers, sick and tired of having their dam littered by man-made debris!

Anita Loos recalls a summer day in Hollywood when Aldous Huxley, Bertrand Russell, one of the top professors at U.C.L.A., Charlie Chaplin, and Greta Garbo joined her for a picnic. The dazzling group parked in a shady glen, and not one of them noticed the "No Trespassing" sign tacked to a sheltering tree. Just as they were unpacking the caviar and champagne, an angry sheriff hove into view and demanded, "Don't anybody in this gang know how to read?"

Speaking of YOUR HEALTH...

By LESTER L. COLEMAN, M.D.

Accidental poisoning, especially of children, still presents a staggering menace to health.

Despite the most arduous pleas by public health educators, almost 2,000 deaths happen each year in the United States from chemical poisonings alone. The number of non-fatal cases is estimated at more than one million yearly.

Yet such overwhelming statistics never seem to be as impressive as the single unnecessary death that occurs to someone close to us.

A few statistics will serve to draw attention to the reality of this problem. Poisoning is always accidental and almost always the result of carelessness.

Children are the chief victims. More than 50 per cent of all poisonings occur in children below the age of 5 years, and the greatest number in children of 2 years.

The fact that stands out most compellingly in the report from the Poison Control Center of the New York City Department of Health, from which the above statistics were drawn, is that infants and children, who are least equipped to protect themselves, are the very ones most often exposed to the dangers of the carelessness and inadequate inspection of hazard areas within the home.

Toddlers and babies in the crawling stage are most likely to taste and swallow anything that lies in their reach. Unfortunately, bleaches, insecticides and cleaning solvents are usually kept on the floor.

It is at the age of three and four years that children become curious climbers and begin to explore the medicine cabinets, closets, and hidden areas. About the age of five, youngsters pass through this tasting, exploration period and become more cautious about bad-tasting and dangerous substances.

The number of fatalities due to the consumption of aspirin is most surprising. This effective drug is normally considered one of the safest of all common household drugs. The tendency to make aspirin more palatable has disadvantages as well as advantages, because to many children it is nothing more than candy.

Other serious poisoners are lye, bleaches, insecticides, sleep-

Big American Dilemma

By John Chamberlain

This country, which took place when he was pioneering the post-1945 psychological warfare designed to keep the hope of freedom alive in all the countries that were then slipping behind the Iron Curtain.

Jackson, a publisher on leave from Fortune magazine, organized the broadcasting activities of Radio Free Europe, and he was the original sponsor of the idea of floating propaganda balloons over the East European satellites to convey messages of hope when the Soviets succeeded in jamming the airwaves.

This sort of thing has now receded into the American past. The FBI carries on its work against internal subversion, and two people, the Russian-born Alexandre Sokolov and his wife, Joy Ann, are arrested and put on trial in Brooklyn Federal Court on charges of transmitting secrets about nuclear launching sites and troop movements to the Soviets over a six-year period. Whereupon Judge John F. Dooling Jr. orders the U. S. government to turn over to the defense the home addresses of some seventy-five FBI agents who are expected to testify at the trial. Just why this should be deemed necessary at a time when the FBI needs all the protection it can get against kooks who might want to vent their spleen against it is not explained.

Everywhere the tendency is toward relaxation of vigilance in what was lately known as the Cold War. The idea is cultivated that we are better off if we do not actively challenge bullies such as Fidel Castro or Mao Tse-tung. This has its domestic reflex when a woman is repeatedly stabbed by a psychotic assailant and nearly 40 persons within hearing pay no attention to her cries for help. A man undertakes to thrash a couple of taunting trespassers on his lawn, and he is fined $200 in court for protecting his own property. So it goes in an era that makes a virtue of recessiveness, to say nothing of cowardice.

And it is in this atmosphere that we expect the FBI and the Secret Service and the police departments of our various cities to keep an infallibly perfect restraining hand on a potshot that might possibly take a person shot at the President.

The World Today

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court, perhaps the most forceful in American history, after the narrowest kind of escape from rebuke by Congress has returned to work by plunging instantly into boiling water.

The nine justices traditionally do not answer their critics. And they observed the tradition this year although it was a year of intense attack.

Their decisions cutting across many fields over several years — particularly race, religion and politics — produced a hurly-burly between their critics and their defenders.

Out of all this naturally came a question: Will the justices now slow up until some of the storm subsides, be a little more restrained like many courts of the past, be less willing to stick their necks out?

Judging from what they have just done it could be reasonably concluded they are determined to do what they think is necessary rather than what is comfortable.

Usually the court does no business on opening day. But when it began its 1964-65 term Monday the justices disregarded the usual and at once began hearings on one of the most controversial social and political issues.

This was on the Civil Rights Act, the strongest in 100 years, passed by Congress last July. The court was not asked to rule on the constitutionality of the whole act but on the sorest point in it:

This is the part outlawing racial discrimination at hotels, restaurants and other places of public accommodation. This part of the act has been a sore point in the South and an issue in this year's political campaign.

Since the campaign will end on Election Day, Nov. 3, the court could have made things easy for itself by deciding to put off a hearing on an appeal a widow and child who was three weeks before the accident.

against the accommodation section until then.

But no matter what the decision, or when, this whole year will be full of thorny issues for the court, covering religion, communism, race, unionism.

The storm over the court began with a hurricane over its 1954 decision calling school segregation unconstitutional. From time to time the hurricane dwindled, and by the end of the court term this year had hurricane force again.

This came after decisions banning required reading of the Bible or the Lord's Prayer in public schools and its decisions that state legislatures' representation must be based on equal proportions of a state's population

In Congress, both the House and Senate approved measures intended to slow down the reapportionment of legislatures — in essence rebuking the court.

The House and Senate, in the last-minute rush to quit and go home, couldn't reconcile their differences and the result was that both measures were scrapped and the court left unscathed.

The fact that the two houses had enough members willing to approve these measures, different as they were, could be taken as a warning light by the justices to go slow.

But the justices have a better perspective on the history of the court, and its trial and tribulations; down through the years than most politicians and most citizens.

From the very beginning the court has been attacked when its decisions jarred some religion, some group, some faction. It is no exaggeration to say that down through the years demands to curb the court or undo its decisions have become an almost fantastic multitude. But it has rarely happened. Another year has passed and it didn't happen.

By James Marlow

2 Ohio Girls Still Sought In England

LONDON (AP)—Two young girls missing from Cleveland, Ohio, and believed to be in Britain have not so far contacted the English girl to whom one of them wrote.

The missing girls are Janice Hawkins and Martha Schendel, Cleveland Heights Police Chief Edward F. Gaffney said Friday drafts of letters written by Janice to British show business people have been found at her home.

One was a draft of a letter to Annabelle Smith, 20-year-old fan club organizer of the Rolling Stones Beat Group. It told of the girls' plans to visit England in July. Miss Smith said today: "Unfortunately I don't have a copy of the letter Janice wrote. I believe it was probably thrown away after I replied to it."

"Police called on me today for the second time about the girls but I wasn't able to help them very much. Apparently the girls have been seen in the Liverpool area. They are Beatle fans and it is presumed they were visiting the Beatles' home town."

"I'm rather surprised that the girls haven't called on me yet. Since they didn't seem to know anyone here before they planned their trip, I should have thought one of the first things they would have done is to contact me."

Miss Smith said she imagined the girls' money must be running low by now—unless they had managed to find some sort of work.

West Virginian Dies Of Self-Inflicted Shot

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A West Virginia man, who put a bullet in his temple as pursuing police closed in to question him about the slaying of his wife, died of his wounds Monday night in a Columbus hospital.

Hospital attendants said Ronald G. Knotts, 24, of Grafton, W. Va., never regained consciousness.

The Ohio Highway Patrol said Knotts led 30 police cars in a high speed chase Sunday before he was cornered here.

The body of Knotts' wife, Mary Jane, 18, had been found a few hours earlier at the home of her sister here where she had been babysitting. Knotts' wife had been shot to death.

Pigeon-Hunter Killed In Hay Loft Mishap

LEBANON, Ohio (AP)—Funeral services have been scheduled Thursday for a 43-year-old Warren County man who was accidentally killed while hunting pigeons from his hay loft.

Coroner Ralph Young said Darrell Thompson's .22 caliber rifle apparently went off when part of the loft floor gave way under his feet Monday. The bullet struck Thompson in the head.

Ohio Solon's Move Liked By Filipino

MANILA (AP)—Basilio King said today he never lost hope of winning entry to the United States with the help of a friend from World War II.

Rep. Frank T. Bow, R-Ohio, who met King while King was a war correspondent Saturday won passage of a special bill permitting the Manila businessman to come to the United States.

Bow tried twice before winning House approval. First time, a fellow Ohio Republican congressman, John Ashbrook, objected to the bill and it was dropped. A short time later, when Ashbrook was absent from the House chamber, the bill was re-introduced and passed.

Now a bank president and officer of finance and investment companies, King said he fought the Japanese occupation forces as a guerrilla and after the liberation helped supply food to the Americans who had been interned at Santo Tomas University.

He said he has met Bow seven or eight times since the war, both in the United States and the Philippines.

A Chinese national born in the Philippines, King is now 44, married and has seven children. Two sons are in the United States. One is serving in the U. S. Army and the other is in college.

He said he is not certain where his family will settle in the U. S.

STATE PARKS

Rugged, spectacular rock formations feature the landscape along the shores of Kelley's Island, part of the popular vacationland archipelago off Sandusky in blue Lake Erie.

The Ohio State Division of Parks is the administrator of a major recreational development on the island.

This portion of Lake Erie is very popular with boating enthusiasts and fishermen.

A motel and numerous private cottages make Kelley's Island a very popular vacation and weekend resort area.

Boat ferry from the Catawba Island terminal near Port Clinton makes it easy to reach all the islands, including Put-In-Bay and Middle Bass.

A popular attraction on Kelley's Island is the Inscription Rock with its ancient Indian pictograph symbols.

Couple United in Marriage

Miss Linda Fay Cook and Mr. John Alfred Renick were united in marriage 8 p. m. Sept. 5 in the Third Ave. Christian Church, Danville, Va. The Rev. R. Eugene Tally performed the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman William Cook, Danville, Va., and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Job R. Renick, Rochester, N. Y., and the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Elliott Miller, Route 4. Given in marriage by her father the bride wore a gown of white Chantilly lace over taffeta fashioned with a fitted bodice, scalloped neckline and long sleeves. The bouffant skirt featured a panel of tulle ruffles at the back ending in a chapel train. A princess crown of seed pearls held her chapel veil and she carried a white Bible with white orchids.

Mrs. Jack D. Fanary was matron of honor for her sister. Bridesmaids were Miss Martha McFarling, Miss Mildred Babb, Miss Elizabeth Barton, Miss Laura Baxley and Miss Mary L. Cain. Miss Susan Hollister and Miss Linda Welty, nieces of the bridegroom were flowergirls.

Mr. James Renick, Wheaton, Ill., served as best man for his brother. Ushers were Mr. Herman Cook Jr., brother of the bride, Mr. David Hitt, Mr. Lyman Davidson, Mr. Charles Moore, Mr. William Moore and Mr. Jan Sasaman.

A reception was held in the church parlor following the ceremony.

The couple will reside in Williamsburg, Va., where the bride is a senior at the College of William and Mary and the bridegroom is currently the bibliographer in the college library.

Mr. Renick is a graduate of Newark High School and the college of William and Mary. He has completed one year at Grace Theological Seminary at Winona Lake, Ind.

Salem WSCS Meet Held At Church

Mrs. Fairy Alkire, Mrs. Ed Evans and Mrs. Darl McAfee were hostesses when members of the Salem WSCS met at the church.

Refreshments were served to 16 members and two guests. Mrs. Ned Boldoser, president, conducted the business session. It was reported there were seven sick calls made and the group agreed to sell pecans again this year.

Plans for a rummage sale and a bake sale were discussed with the proceeds to go to the organ fund. Salem Church will be hosts for the World Day of Prayer 2:30 p. m. Oct. 25.

Mrs. Alkire led the devotionals. Mrs. Ira Barr sang a solo and Miss Betty Boldoser, Mrs. Ned Boldoser and Mrs. Vera Miller read from the book, "Summoned to a New Age."

A prayer, hymn and the benediction closed the meeting.

11 Members Attend Meet

The Blue Star Mothers met in the home of Mrs. Bryan Russell with 11 members present. Mrs. Carl Russell was a guest.

Mrs. Harry Lane opened the meeting with a pledge of allegiance. A thank you card was received from Mrs. Guy Rader for the golden wedding anniversary gift from the group.

Luncheon was served by the hostess.

The next session will be held in the home of Mrs. Howard Smith.

Fall Planting Theme of GC Program

Mrs. W. H. Barch discussed the topic, "Planting Bulbs in the Fall" when The Soliqua Garden Club met in the home of Mrs. Everett Peters.

Mrs. Bernard Savey, president, conducted the meeting. Mrs. Peters read "My Daily Prayer" for devotions.

During her discussion Mrs. Barch explained in detail the preparation of soil time and bulb arrangement of tulips and other spring flowering bulbs. She also discussed the care and protection of plantings to survive the winter weather.

Routine business reports were presented and communications were read and discussed. Roll call was answered by 20 members. Topics were assigned to members for monthly publication in the Pickaway County News.

Mrs. C. W. Hedges won the corn guessing contest. Mrs. Lee Downs received the project gift. Mystery sister gifts were received by Mrs. Hedges, Mrs. Glen Reinhart and Mrs. Cecil Ward.

A salad course was served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. E. M. Morris.

The next meeting will be held in the home of Mrs. Paul Stout. Mrs. Harry Trump and Mrs. Lee Downs will be co-hostesses. Mystery sisters will be revealed and new names drawn. Each member is to bring an original holiday arrangement.

Mrs. Marion's Class Convenes

Mrs. Clark McFarland, Route 3, was hostess when members of Mrs. Marion's Sunday School Class met last night.

Mrs. Daniel Eitel, Miss Florence Russell and Mrs. Roscoe Warren assisted.

Mrs. Berman Wertman presented devotions. Mrs. Forrest Thomerson, president, presided. Miss Ruth Stout read the bylaws. Mrs. Olan Bostwick, treasurer, and Mrs. Wertman, secretary, reported. The next meeting will be Nov. 2 in the home of Mrs. Barton Deming.

The group planned a spaghetti meal to be served at the church election day. Letters were read from Mrs. Marion.

There were 14 members and one guest present. Refreshments were served by the hostesses.

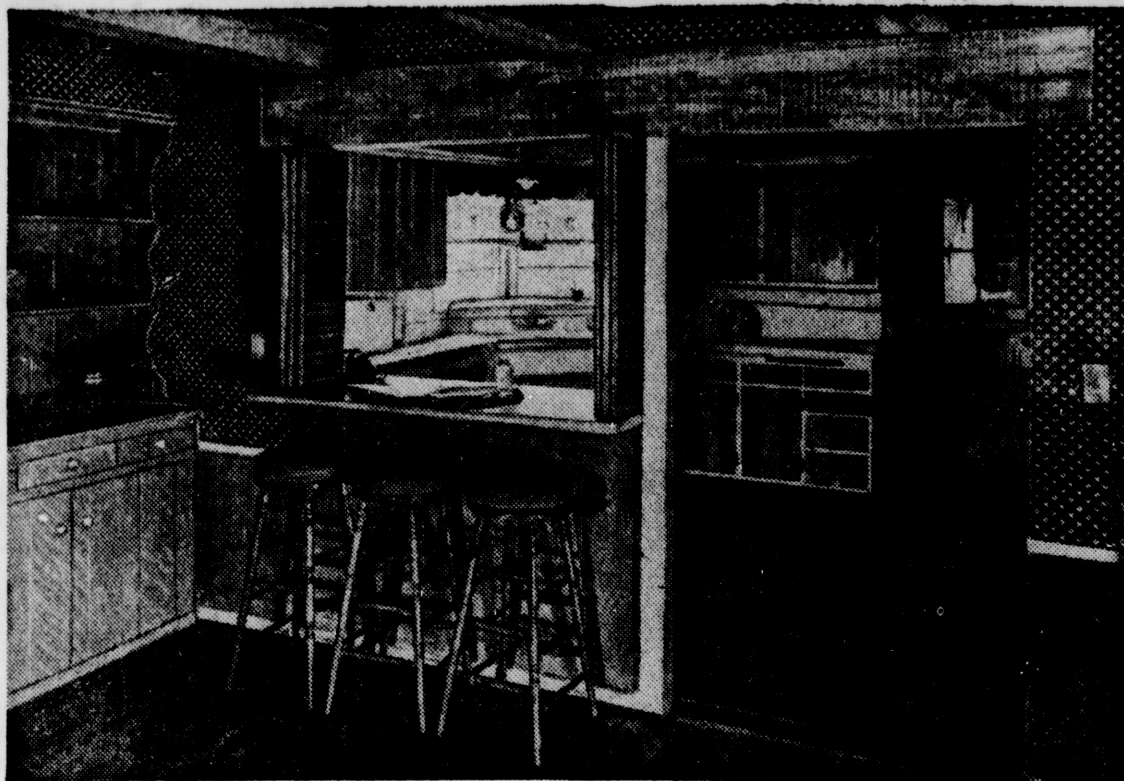

Prizes were awarded to Mrs. Virgil Cress and Mrs. Warren Harmon.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Chester, Williamsport, returned home Sunday after spending a week visiting their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Starkey, Newport News, Va. They attended the commissioning of the Polaris Submarine Von Steuben Wednesday at the Newport News Ship Building and Dry Dock Company. They also attended a dinner dance Thursday at the Colonial Lodge, Williamsburg, Va., in honor of the submarine, its crew and officers. Snack Bar Is Practical

By JOAN O'SULLIVAN

The kitchenette set is giving way in many homes to something newer and in some ways more practical — the snack bar.

A built-in piece — this is one of its great virtues — it can be built-in to take the best possible advantage of available space.

An ideal design for a small family, or a for a large one that snatches breakfast or munches lunch in staggered shifts, the snack bar offers more than space-saving virtues.

For one, it's easier to sweep under than a table is. For another, it can be planned as a room divider, a popular notion in new family-size kitchens.

Almost any unused wall area will do for a snack bar, advises the Western Wood Products Association. It can be long or short and its depth can be as little as 12 inches.

The counter can be table or bar height, in which case high bar stools are used for seating. The kind that slip under the counter when not in use are the best bet if space is at a premium.

Your own requirements and the space available will dictate the design of the bar.

One idea is to make a pass-through from the kitchen to the dining room. In this way, the bar can not only be used for breakfast and lunch, but as a pass-through service counter when sit-down meals are being served in the dining room.

The utility of a snack bar needn't stop at the counter. The wall area above and/or below it can be built to put valuable use with built-in storage cabinets. If the location permits these cabinets can be designed to open from either side for additional convenience.

Decorative woods, ranging from casual and appealing knotty Ponderosa pine to lively-looking Idaho white pine, make snack bars especially attractive, as well as delightfully inexpensive, too.

In addition to the natural finishes of lacquer or varnish, which are so warm and appealing, and the many shades of oil stains available, pastel tints, stains and bleaches can be used. Pine woods hold every type of surface finish, making it possible for you to select the one that will carry out your kitchen scheme and to match or contrast your snack bar to its decor.

Dear Abby: By Abigail Van Buren

She Sits — He Flits!

DEAR ABBY: I am 21 and my boy friend is 23. We both work and are saving for a spring wedding. We have gone steady for ten months and dated a year before that so we know each other pretty well.

Recently "Tom" began telling me that he was playing cards with the fellows at night, so I took baby sitting jobs while he went out. A few days ago I found out that he had been seeing another girl. I gave him back his ring. He begged and pleaded and said he didn't know what made him go out on me. He wants a second chance. Should I take him back and maybe find out he still cheats after we are married?

DISTURBED

DEAR DISTURBED: If you have any doubts about his ability to keep his marriage vows, don't marry him! Forewarned is forearmed.

DEAR ABBY: My wife and I recently moved to California from New York State. We bought a nice little home in the San Fernando Valley. Most of our neighbors are about our age (30ish), but right next door lives a retired older couple. Whenever I am outside doing anything in the yard, the man comes out to "help" me. He is a pleasant, but talkative, guy and an expert on everything. Gardening, building, repairing. Name it, and he has the tools and the know-how. He saw me building a wall for our barbecue pit and he ran right out and took over. Every time I got to work on it, he came out to "help" me. He finally finished the job while I sat on the ground like a moron. How can I let him know that some people do things for the exercise and enjoyment of it, and not just to get them finished? I wouldn't want to hurt his feelings. He is old enough to be my father.

NEWCOMER

DEAR NEWCOMER: And perhaps someone ought to let YOU know that some people "offer to help" not because they want to see the job done, but because they are lonely and want company. Be firm, but kind, in your refusal to let him take over, but let him hang around and talk because that's probably all he wants. (P.S. One day, YOU may retire.)

DEAR ABBY: We have a dear little girl who was horribly disfigured through an unfortunate accident. We plan to have plastic surgery done on her face as soon as the doctor advises that she is ready for it. Lately she becomes hysterical at the mere mention of returning to school. It will be her second year. Her first was tragic because very young children just do not understand, and they made fun of her. What shall I do, Miss Abby? It is a very fine, modern public school with a staff of just wonderful and efficient teachers. I hesitate to complain about the children, but our little girl is our first consideration. Should I talk

Junior High Gridders Post 18-6 Verdict

The Circleville Junior High football team opened its four-game season yesterday by defeating J. A. Smith Junior High of Chillicothe, 18-6.

Scoring touchdowns for the Tiny Tigers were Frankie Carter, Rickie Sims and Don Cordle. Cordle tallied on a pass from Sims.

One touchdown was set up when Donnie Smith intercepted a pass and ran it back 30 yards.

Coaching the little Tigers this year are Jim Shaw and Brent Bell.

On Saturday the Circleville reserves were swamped by Logan freshmen, 22-8.

Michiganders Upset Top Ten Ratings

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Hurricane Hilda didn't get north to the state of Michigan. No matter. The Michigan State Spartans and the Michigan Wolverines provided their own power on the gridiron and blew Southern California and Navy right out of the Top Ten in college football.

The Texas Longhorns retained today their No. 1 spot in this week's voting by The Associated Press panel of sports writers and broadcasters with a come-from-behind 17-6 triumph over Army.

But Michigan State upset Southern California 17-7 and Michigan walloped Navy 21-0 to give the Top Ten a thorough shaking up. As a result Southern California, No. 2, and Navy, No. 6, flopped right out of the rankings.

The new Top Ten is No. 1, Texas; No. 2, Illinois; No. 3, Alabama; No. 4, Ohio State; No. 5, Kentucky; No. 6, Notre Dame; No. 7, Michigan; No. 8, Nebraska; No. 9, a tie between Michigan State and Arkansas.

Illinois took over the No. 2 spot with a 17-6 triumph over Northwestern. Alabama moved up to No. 3 by blanking Vanderbilt 24-0 and Ohio State jumped a notch to No. 4 by slamming Indiana 17-9.

Kentucky, perhaps the surprise team of the season to date, jumped from nowhere to the No. 5 spot with an 20-0 upset over Auburn, a defeat that pushed the Tigers out of the Top Ten. It was the third straight for Kentucky's unbeaten Wildcats. They previously downed Detroit 13-6 and Mississippi 27-21.

Phillies Grant Mauch New Pact

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—General Manager John Quinn of the Philadelphia Phillies says he and owner Bob Carpenter think Manager Gene Mauch has done a terrific job, despite the team's National League tailspin that cost them the pennant.

Quinn made the comment Monday after giving Mauch a new, two-year contract with a reported increase in salary.

The Phillies finished in a tie for second place with Cincinnati after blowing a 6½-game lead in the last two weeks, during which they dropped 10 games in a row.

Mauch, whose present contract had another year to run, signed the new pact in Quinn's office before leaving for the World Series in St. Louis.

Browns Acquire Vikings Tackle

CLEVELAND (AP)—Mike Bundra, the defensive tackle the Cleveland Browns acquired from the Minnesota Vikings Monday to replace Bob Gain, comes highly recommended by several National Football League coaches.

Bundra, in his third season in the league, was picked up for an undisclosed draft choice to fill the spot vacated when Gain broke a leg against Dallas Sunday. Before being traded to Minnesota earlier this year, he played two years for Detroit.

Tippett Named Game Warden For Pickaway

Russell Tippett, a native of Chauncey in Athens County, has been appointed Pickaway County Game Protector.

Tippett's appointment was made official last week following a month of probationary service here.

The 22-year-old Tippett has been with the Ohio Department of Natural Resources since July 28, 1964.

Married, he is the father of two children. He is a graduate of Chauncey-Dover High School.

He served three years in the United States Army. Prior to his army duty, he was file clerk with the Federal Bureau of Investigation in Washington D. C.

Wittenberg '11' Still Ranks No. 1

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Wittenberg Tigers, apparently as strong on the gridiron as they usually are on the basketball floor, again are No. 1 this week in the Associated Press small college football poll.

The unbeaten Tigers won their third straight by crushing Heidelberg 49-0 Saturday and retained their top perch in the voting by the AP panel of sports writers and broadcasters.

San Diego State, Lamar Tech and Prairie View each are undefeated in three games, too, but they didn't amass as many points and trail Wittenberg as the No. 2, 3 and 4 teams in that order.

The rest, in order after fifth-place Florida A&M, were Louisiana Tech, Susquehanna, Delaware, Los Angeles State, and Northwest Louisiana.

Loss of Pennant Costly to Redlegs

CINCINNATI (AP)—Failing to win the national League pennant may have cost the Cincinnati Reds as much as $50,000.

Business manager John McDough said Monday the bill for returning checks for World Series tickets and other related expenses may reach that amount.

The Reds received about $1.4 million worth of orders for tickets while it looked as though they would win the pennant.

Besides mailing expenses, the club will have to pay for various World Series arrangements that were made "just in case," extra pay for employees and incidental expenses.

The Reds had to settle for a second-place tie with Philadelphia Sunday when the Phils beat them 10-0, while the league champion St. Louis Cardinals were routing New York, 11-5.

Jim Camp, former assistant at North Carolina, Mississippi State and Minnesota, is in his fourth year as football coach at George Washington.

The first Dempsey-Tunney world heavyweight championship fight Sept. 22, 1927, grossed a gate of $2,658,660 in Chicago.

Featherweight King Abdicates

MEXICO CITY (AP)—Featherweight world champion Uliminio (Sugar) Ramos announced Monday night he will not fight any more.

Speaking at a TV program with sports commentator Paco Malgesto, Ramos said he has decided to retire "and try to live in peace and quiet for a change."

The former champion, who lost his title last month to Mexico's Vicente Saldivar, told Malgesto he has not yet made any definite plans, but that one thing was sure: he will not climb into a ring again.

500 Mph. Speed Is Ohioan's Goal

BONNEVILLE SALT FLATS, Utah (AP)—Art Arfons, who traveled faster Monday than any man before him in a land-bound car, set his sights today on going even faster.

The speed record that Arfons broke with a run of 434.02 miles an hour in his jet-powered car was set only last Friday in a car designed by his brother Walt.

Art Arfons planned to spend today rechecking his car, the Green Monster. If all is well, he intends to try for 500 m.p.h. Wednesday.

Arfons' first run Monday on the one-mile course at these western Utah salt flats was timed at 396 m.p.h. But he turned his 17,000-horsepower car around and headed back at 479 m.p.h.

The average of 434.02 m.p.h. becomes the official record, topping the 413.20 m.p.h. clocked by Tom Green in Walt Arfons' car last week.

Some speed experts contend neither of the Arfons brothers' times is a true auto speed record because the wheels of jet cars are not driven directly by the engines.

The International Auto Federation in Paris recognizes as the world record 403.14 m.p.h. set last July in Australia by Donald Campbell of Great Britain in a turbine-powered car.

The U.S. Auto Club has an unlimited jet category, into which Arfons' record fits.

OSU-Illini Battle To Be Crucial

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio State and Illinois, two grid powers that stress defense, clash at Champaign Saturday in the Big Ten's feature of the week. It could be the best game of the season.

Defending champion Illinois, ranked second in The Associated Press poll, and fourth-ranked Ohio State risk their unsullied 2-0 records in this one.

The contest has been a sellout for 10 days and some 71,119 fans are expected to watch the fireworks.

Buckeye coach Woody Hayes and assistant coach and head scout Esco Sarkkinen told a press luncheon Monday that Ohio State faces a stern test. A victory could pave the way to Pasadena Jan. 1.

The Bucks, boasting one of the nation's finest defenses, will have to mix with an Illini defense that boasts nine seniors.

Sarkkinen put it this way: "This Illinois defense was by far the determining factor in its 17-6 victory over Northwestern."

Sarkkinen is impressed with Illinois' offense, too. "They have a diversified attack," he said. "Their quarterback, Fred Custard, has hit 20 of 27 passes for 248 yards and one touchdown. He's also a scrambler and very good on rollouts."

Jim Miller is in his third season as Boston College football coach.

Cardinals Send Sadecki Against Yankee's Ford

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Ray Sadecki, a 3-year-old lefty with his first big winning year, will tote a tremendous burden Wednesday as the opening pitcher for the underdog St. Louis Cardinals against Whitey Ford, the New York Yankees' cagey veteran.

Ford's experience under fire is one reason why the Yanks are 17-10 favorites to take it all and 6-5 in the opener. It will be Whitey's 2nd Series start.

The Series schedule, which calls for a day off for travel after the second and fifth games, permits the first-game pitchers to make three starts if it goes the seven-game limit.

Because Johnny Keane, Cardinal manager, had to use Bob Gibson in relief in Sunday's final game to clinch the National League pennant, he is forced to start Sadecki, a pro-game winner who was knocked out of the box Saturday by the New York Mets.

It figures to be the Yanks' Big Three of Ford, Mel Stottlemyre and Jim Bouton against the Cardinals' trio of Sadecki, Gibson and Curt Simmons. Nobody else is likely to start.

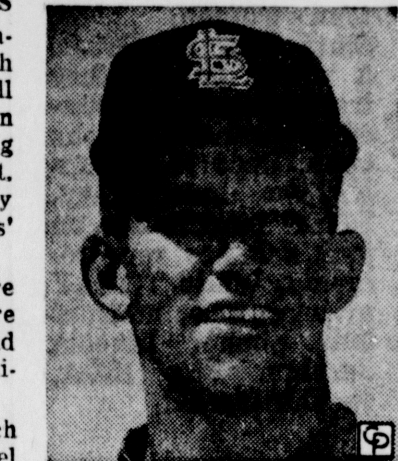

Al Downing, normally a regular, probably will be in the Yankee bullpen which will be hurting without Pedro Ramos, the stopper of the last month of the season.

Ramos is not eligible for the Series because he was acquired from Cleveland too late to be placed on the list which closes Sept. 1. The absence of the handsome Cuban may be fatal to Manager Yogi Berra, who learned to lean more and more on Ramos in the stretch drive to his first pennant.

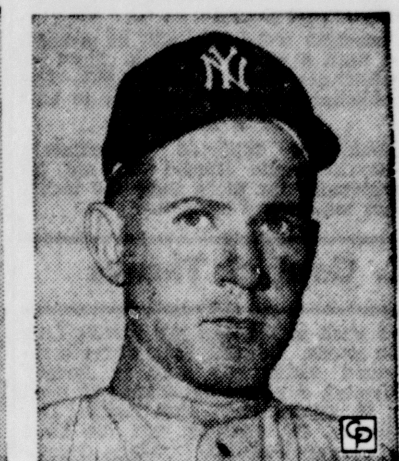

"It all depends on how things are going," said Berra in New York Monday after he sent the Yanks through a light drill at Yankee Stadium.

Tony Kubek, regular Yankee shortstop, and Julian Javier, the Cards' second baseman, were on the doubtful list because of injuries.

Kubek, in fact, very likely will miss the entire Series because of a jammed right wrist that has kept him out of action for two weeks.

Ray Sadecki

Whitey Ford

St. Louis' Busch Stadium . . . capacity 30,500

Javier suffered a badly bruised left hip Saturday in a collision with the Mets' Bob Taylor. The Cards were optimistic about his playing but had Dal Maxvill ready. Maxvill, normally a weak hitter, came through with flying colors in the weekend games.

Phil Linz, the Yanks' harmonica-playing rascal, undoubtedly will start at shortstop. Linz has been getting key hits in the Yanks' late drive.

Speed will be on the side of the Cards with Lou Brock, their base-stealing whiz, Curt Flood and Javier the best of the lot. They will put pressure on Elston Howard, the Yanks' fine catcher, just as the dashing Dodgers of Los Angeles did last year in a four-straight sweep.

Both clubs scheduled tune-ups at Busch Stadium today with the Yanks, who were flying in due to follow the Cardinals. Busch Stadium, with its pavilion in right field only 310 feet from the plate, provides a fine target for left-handed sluggers like Roger Maris, Mickey Mantle and Joe Pepitone of the Yanks and Bill White and Brock of the Cards.

It will be the fifth Series meeting of the Yanks and Cards, who split the first four. Ralph Houk, whom Berra succeeded this year, was the first rookie manager to win a pennant. The Yanks won the pennant in 1961, his first year at the helm and also won under him in 1962 and 1963.

The last time the Cards won the pennant was in 1946. Eddie Dyer was a rookie manager that season and the Redbirds went on to beat the Boston Red Sox in the Series.

Topsy-Turvy Mid-Am Loop May Be In for Shuffle

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — There's some interesting activity on this Saturday's grid menu that could shuffle the standings in the topsy-turvy Mid-American Conference.

Massillon '11' Extends Lead In State Poll

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Massillon stretched its lead just a mite today in the weekly Associated Press high school football poll, as three members of the top 10 suffered setbacks and fell among the also-rans.

The Terrific Tigers, nine-time holders of the state title, whipped ancient foe Alliance 28-6 — biggest margin they've had on the Aviator gridiron in 15 years — to hold the top spot by 75 poll points over twice-champion Canton McKinley.

The Bulldogs had no picnic in beating Canton Lincoln 10-7. Niles, the defending king which fell before Massillon two weeks ago, skidded from third to fifth despite a resounding 42-0 win over Cincinnati La Salle. The game was played Saturday night, too late for some of the 38 voters to learn of the rout before casting their ballots.

Sandusky moved around the fourth-place Springfield South Wildcats to trade places with Niles. Middletown, sixth last week, lost 34-12 to Cincinnati Elder; eighth-ranked Chillicothe was nicked 23-14 by Columbus Watterston, and both losers fell out of the listings along with ninth-ranked Canton Lincoln.

Columbus Watterston and Upper Arlington each 4-0, eased into eighth and ninth as newcomers. Findlay moved up a notch to sixth, and Mt. Vernon vaulted from a 10th-place tie to seventh.

Shown are the first-place votes in parentheses, the poll points on a 10-9-8-etc basis, and the won - lost - tied records of the leaders:

Teams	Poll Points	W-L-T
Massillon (11)	285	4-0-0
Canton McKinley (4)	210	4-0-0
Sandusky (4)	159	4-0-0

Miami, atop the seven-member heap with an unblemished 2-0 mark, gets an acid test when the Redskins play host to ever-improving Kent State (0-0-1).

Defending champion Ohio University (0-0-1), which had to settle for a 3-3 tie with Kent last weekend, looks for its first league victory of the season against winless Toledo (0-1).

And Bowling Green, the pre-season choice to grab all the marbles, opens its conference campaign on the road against Western Michigan (0-1).

Marshall (1-1) plays outside the conference in a home encounter with Buffalo.

Miami, with quarterback Ernie Kellermann and fullback Joe Kozar furnishing the firepower, belted Western Michigan 35-0 for its second straight triumph.

Kellermann clicked on 9 of 11 aerials for 135 yards, ran for one touchdown and guided Miami's versatile offense. Team mate Kozar carried 21 times for 87 yards and three touchdowns. A stout Miami line held the Broncos to 50 yards rushing.

The Redskins this week will be up against coach Leo Strang's revitalized Golden Flashes. Kent, although its offense has been unproductive, has displayed a stingy defense, holding its last two foes, Xavier and Ohio U., to a mere five points.

End Tom Zupke booted a 24-yard field goal in the final quarter to give the Flashes a 3-3 tie with the Bobcats. Coach Bill Hess' squad got its three on a 12-yard field goal by Gary Simmons.

Ohio has not scored a touchdown now since its opening contest against West Texas State but is expected to prevail over Toledo.

The Rockets fell to last place in the conference by losing to Marshall, 12-0, Saturday night. Larry Coyer's 79-yard punt return gave the Big Green all it needed as the West Virginians threw up a stiff defense that stymied Toledo's attack.

Coach Doyt Perry's Falcons roared to victory No. 3 by trouncing Dayton, 35-0. The Bee-Gees did it in impressive fashion, exploding for 21 points in the first quarter.

Bowling Green was so tough defensively that Dayton never penetrated Falcon territory.

Another surprise by Kent and expected triumphs by Ohio and Bowling Green could tighten the race considerably.

The game at Oxford shapes up as a defensive struggle since the Redskins are unscored upon in their last 10 quarters.

The Baltimore Colts scored the most points (166) during the NFL exhibition season. They won three games, lost one, tied one.

NEW YORK (AP)—NBC introduced its new economy-size comedy package Monday night. "90 Bristol Court" is the overall title for 90 minutes of television which is really three separate situation comedies. It concerns people who live in what looks like a plush, expensive

California garden apartment, complete with swimming pool. One character who pops up in all is a janitor who acts like a one-man Greek chorus, speaking directly to the audience.

First program of the trio was "Karen," who in the person of young Debbie Watson is a pretty teen-ager. It got off to a rather sluggish start with something about a blind date followed by prolonged confusion about identities.

"Harris against the World," the second segment, stars that excellent actor Jack Klugman. The first episode got off on a wobbly foot with an exaggerated story about an incredibly stupid secretary and a lost report which produced a lot of anguished forehead slapping but not very much humor. If Klugman is given some decent material he could pull this one up to a rather bright half hour.

Finally there was the broadly slapstick "Tom, Dick and Mary," about a pair of newlyweds who take in a friend as a boarder to help with the rent. The two men are interns — and what goes on in their hospital, including a pillow fight and a patient running around the corridors in his nightshirt, may give Casey, Kildare and the American Medical Association the jitters.

The principals however, are young and attractive and maybe it will grow better with age. "The Andy Williams Show" also arrived on NBC as a weekly program Monday night, happily with the same style, easy manner and good taste that made it a standout last season when it turned up once amonth.

Recommended tonight: "World War One," CBS, 8-8:30 EDT — "Doomed Dynasties," one of the documentary series exploring changes in ruling families in the conflict; Telephone Hour, NBC, 10-11—Musical hour with Bing Crosby, Burl Ives and the McGuire Sisters.

AFTER 35 REAL RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION

If you're over 35 and you feel grouchy, out-of-sorts — your trouble may be due to constipation caused by a slowed-down system. The laxative you're used to may no longer be best for you. Try SERUTAN, the all-vegetable laxative aid especially made for folks over 35.

SERUTAN provides the peristaltic stimulation to wake up your slowed-down system. This is entirely different from pills, salts or oils. SERUTAN acts like the naturally laxative hydrogel in fruits and vegetables to bring real relief from constipation. So, after 35, take SERUTAN daily to help stimulate your slowed-down system to more normal regularity. Remember, when you read SERUTAN backwards, it spells nature's.

Catholics OK Unprecedented New Program

VATICAN CITY (AP) — The Vatican Ecumenical Council voted approval today of an unprecedented new program of common prayer and public meetings between Roman Catholics and other Christians.

The council, a gathering of Catholic prelates from around the world, agreed that Catholics everywhere must undergo a "conversion of heart" toward others to further the goal of Christian unity.

Council fathers meeting in St. Peter's Basilica also approved a declaration that the church must be ready to reaffirm itself where errors may have occurred, and another declaration that Catholic teachings — both for priests and laymen — must conform to the principles of the Christian unity movement "to keep minds open to others."

Approval of these measures came in voting on the second chapter of the schema "de oecumenismo" (on unity), a fundamental goal of the council.

Passage of the provisions in the chapter, the second of three in the schema, was another major triumph for forces within the church working to overcome the barriers that have divided Christians for centuries.

The first chapter, which outlines principles of unity, was approved Monday 1926 to 300 with 209 others in favor with states that the church must share in responsibility for the disorders that have split the Christian world.

The provisions and votes today were:

—Unity is a matter of concern for the whole church, and the church must be ready for self-reform where necessary, 2,120 to 46.

—Catholics must undergo a conversion of heart. Unless a new mental attitude to remove suspicions and misconceptions occurs, the ecumenism movement will not make great progress. All Catholics "in some way have responsibility for the sins of disunity," 2,076 to 92.

—There is "absolute need," for public and private prayer for Christian unity and the possibility of common prayer with the separated brethren, 1,872 to 292.

—Catholic training must conform to unity principles and Catholics should cooperate with Orthodox, Protestants and Anglicans in all fields of public life to give "a common Christian witness to the world, 2,099 to 62.

The proposal for common prayer in itself represented a giant step forward toward better inter-Christian relations.

Pope Paul VI, in his meeting both this year and last with the non-Catholic observers at the council, said the "our father" prayer with them. Catholics and non-Catholics at unity meetings elsewhere have joined in this prayer.

But never before has the church gone on record as officially approving a program of common prayer.

It would be left to the various national bishops conferences to decide when, how and in what circumstances there could be common prayers between Catholics and other Christians in their countries.

The chapter also calls for more public meetings "on an equal footing" between Catholics and non-Catholic Christians — Protestants, Anglicans and Orthodox — to pursue the dialogue for closer mutual understanding and respect.

Young GOP Club Will Meet Today

Several items are on the agenda for today's meeting of the Young Republicans Club. The session will start at 8 p. m. in GOP Headquarters on N. Court St.

Tonight's program will center on a discussion forum on the general political scene and a workshop session in preparation for the coming election, according to Robert Lund, president of the Young GOP Club.

All members of the club and other Republicans interested in aiding the local program are invited.

On the left is Earl Palm, Community Fund president. Each CF participating agency provided a display of their activities and a representative from each presented a short talk on the importance of support provided by the Community Fund. Boy Scouts served as ushers and the Red Cross Gray Ladies and Volunteers served refreshments.

Accommodate Law's Legality Is Debated

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court opened its new term hearing arguments on two challenges to the constitutionality of a key section of the 1964 Civil Rights Act.

Dispensing quickly with opening-day formalities Monday the high court heard four hours of debate in the two cases. Both involve the section of the law which prohibits discrimination in such public accommodations as hotels, motels and restaurants.

One case was brought by the Heart of Atlanta Motel; the other, by Ollie's Barbecue, a Birmingham, Ala., restaurant. The court gave no indication of when it may decide the cases. It called for additional, written arguments from the two sides within 10 days.

The public accommodations section is one of two whose constitutionality was questioned by Republican presidential nominee Barry Goldwater in explaining his Senate vote against the rights bill. President Johnson's administration considers passage of the law one of its prime legislative accomplishments.

Moreton Rolleston Jr., owner of the Heart of Atlanta Motel who acted as his own attorney, told the court that unless it declares the law unconstitutional, "there is no end" to how far Congress will invade personal liberties.

Rolleston challenged Congress' constitutional right to ban restaurants, hotel and motel discrimination under its powers to regulate interstate commerce.

"People are not commerce," he argued. He denounced as "hogwash" Justice Department contentions that the measure is aimed at relieving the burden on interstate commerce.

Justice Hugo L. Black asked Rolleston how he could say interstate commerce is not involved since Negroes can find no motel accommodations in travels through the South. The attorney replied that after the Heart of Atlanta was ordered to admit Negroes, only three went there during August.

Solicitor General Archibald Cox, arguing for the government, said Congress has the power to regulate even local activities when a burden is placed on interstate commerce.

In the Birmingham case, attorney Robert D. McSmith contended that the provision of the public accommodations section dealing with restaurants was irrational, saying it holds that foods once purchased in interstate commerce have an eventual serious effect on that commerce.

Ollie's concedes it is in violation of the law as worded but contends it is not in interstate tended to him for the first time and realized how terribly wrong I had been. Here is a truly great leader."

In Johnson's home state, Texas, he had mixed opinions of him. Said a West Texas business executive, "Lyndon doesn't have a real friend in Texas. But he knows how to get things done. People may dislike him personally, but they have to admire his ability to work with people."

In Dallas, a Goldwater fortress, a sales representative said, "When you're in that voting booth, it's going to be hard to resist the urge to keep a Texan in the driver's seat."

"I believe Johnson's a good man, but I'm very much opposed to socialism," said Mrs. James Felker, Fort Worth accountant. "I'll vote for Goldwater. I think we have too much foreign aid and Johnson is more closely associated with socialism."

The very fact that Johnson, a Texan, drove for the Civil Rights Act has alienated many Southerners. They call him a "turncoat" and a "renegade."

"Johnson being a Southerner didn't turn out to be much of one," said George Winslow, of La Grange, Ga., a cab driver. Sen. Strom Thurmond of South Carolina, who has turned Republican, said "Lyndon's being a Southerner will play some part in the South, but it's what the man stands for that will count."

Thurmond's move may carry Southern votes with him. In Greensboro, N.C. Roy C. Milkan, a Republican, said Thurmond "is a powerful person. What he says travels a long way."

In Lawton, Okla., Mrs. John Stanfield, a Democrat, commended Thurmond for his action. "I think you should vote for the man and not the party," she said.

A number of those questioned said they were "confused" as the familiar political patterns become blurred in the South.

"It isn't the Democratic party any more," said a Tifton, Ga., contractor. "I'm voting Republican." But a Moultrie,

A three-judge federal court ruled that the law should not be applied to Ollie's. The decision was stayed by Justice Black pending the high court's final determination of the case.

Ga., executive said, "Well, people around here say they're going to vote Republican but when they get in the voting booth with a full stomach and money in their pockets, they'll vote Democratic just as they always have."

JWs To Meet At Springfield

The last of three conventions held this year in Central Ohio by Jehovah's Witnesses was announced today by Wayne Fetherolf, presiding minister of the Circleville group.

The last meeting will be a circuit assembly at the Clark County Fairgrounds in Springfield on Oct. 16-18.

"Speak the Word of God with Boldness" will be the assembly theme. About 1,800 are expected to attend from an area bounded by Bellefontaine, Marion, Springfield and Circleville.

73 School Buses Inspected Here

A total of 73 buses used to transport city, county and parochial school children were inspected by the Ohio State Highway Patrol this year in Pickaway County.

Of the number inspected, 50 failed to pass the rigid specifications of the Patrol. Three were completely unserviceable, it was reported by Patrolman P. J. Rank.

Patrolman Rank noted that several buses failed to pass a second examination.

Settlement Is Made In 25 Injury Cases

CLEVELAND (AP)—Twenty-five injury cases resulting from a 1953 Andover gas explosion that killed 22 persons and injured 16 were settled Monday in the chambers of Common Pleas Court Judge Harry Jaffe.

The suits totaled several million dollars, but lawyers declined to reveal the amount of the settlements. Judge Jaffe withheld the information at their request.

Defendants in the 25 actions were the Standard Oil Co., the O & P Petroleum Co., the Village of Andover and Swasey & Barnes, dealers in Standard Oil products.

Ford Fires 18 Workers For Strike

CLEVELAND (AP)—A Ford Motor Co. spokesman said Monday night that 18 United Auto Workers members have been fired and 12 more suspended for allegedly taking part in a wildcat strike at three company plants in Brook Park last week.

The workers belong to Local 1250. The strike was touched off when a committeeman, John Lovejoy, was suspended on charges of disobedience. The walkout was ended by a court injunction last Tuesday, and the company fired Lovejoy Monday.

The company said Lovejoy was suspended Sept. 25 on the ground he left his normal jurisdiction to hear a union member's grievance in the foundry. That is against company rules, a spokesman said.

The 18 who were fired, a Ford spokesman said, violated "a specific no-strike pledge contained in Ford's national agreement with the UAW."

White Group Faces Judge In Cincinnati

CINCINNATI (AP)—The next step in the legal controversy about the National Association for the Advancement of White People will be a hearing in Judge Louis J. Schneider's courtroom Friday morning.

Judge Schneider set that date Flax filed a motion in Hamilton County Common Pleas Court, asking him to dissolve a temporary injunction against the trustees of the NAAWP.

The court order was issued Saturday after Woodrow Dillehay, who described himself as a NAAWP trustee, asked the court to join the other trustees from acting in that capacity.

Dillehay also asked the courts to order a financial accounting by the 15-month-old organization and the ouster of its founder-president, William F. Miller of Cincinnati, from the board of trustees.

The trustees met Sunday at Columbus and suspended Miller indefinitely for allegedly bringing the organization into disrepute. Miller has been involved in a quarrel with other NAAWP leaders for several months.

Miller says the trustees had no authority to suspend him.

No Spy Trial Delay Allowed

Yank, Russian To Face Hearing

NEWARK, N.J. (AP) — Neither a presidential campaign or a government-dropped spy case is sufficient reason to further postpone the trial here of two men accused of espionage, a U.S. District Court judge has ruled.

The trial of John W. Butenko, 39, Orange, an American engineer, and Igor A. Ivanov, 34, a Russian chauffeur, now is scheduled to begin in U.S. District Court Friday.

The two are accused of conspiring to transmit vital defense information to the Soviet Union. They were arrested last Oct. 29 in an Englewood train station. A brief case containing Air Force documents was seized by FBI agents at the time of the arrests.

A last-minute motion for a two-month adjournment was made by defense lawyers Monday just before the scheduled start of the trial.

U.S. District Court Judge Anthony T. Augelli dismissed the motion but granted the defense an additional three days.

Raymond A. Brown, Butenko's attorney, argued for adjournment on two grounds.

Brown said that Republican presidential nominee Barry Goldwater has called President Johnson "soft on communism." He estimated the trial would last about a month, ending around election day, Nov. 3.

"Anyone on trial for espionage is in danger of having the minds of jurors contaminated by these extraneous matters," Brown added.

Brown also argued that jurors would be prejudiced by the government's action of last Friday, when it dropped the prosecution of an alleged husband-wife spy team in Brooklyn, N.Y.

The government halted the trial of Mr. and Mrs. Alexandre Sokolov, reportedly because it was feared that testimony in open court might endanger U.S. counterespionage operations.

Construction Aide Is Electrocuted

CLEVELAND (AP) — Philip G. Atol, 25-year-old construction worker, was electrocuted Monday when a crane hoisting a pipe he was guiding brushed against a hot wire in Strongsville. Fellow workers said Atol had both hands on the pipe and was knocked to the ground by the charge.
